HEART TO HEART.....by Rev. Scott M. Sunnenberg

Dear Parishioners,

As promised in last week's addition of the Sacred Heart Parish bulletin, we present you, our fellow parishioners, with an "in their own words" look at our nominations for the Parish Council election ballot. THIS IS NOT A BALLOT. Please use the boxes next to the photographs and bios for the purpose of preselecting your candidates. Then we will have elections via ballots located in the pews September 4/5 at all Masses. Prayerfully take some time to read each bio between now and then and to pray for our candidates and our upcoming Parish Council election. Thank you to each of the candidates for their willing hearts of service.

Sacred Heart Parish and the Parish Council of Catholic Women were pleased to support our parish administrative assistant, Mary Rowley, as she attended the 101st anniversary of NCCW convention in Virginia this past week. Mary serves as a nominating committee member for the NCCW and a team trainer on the National Council of Catholic Women Leadership Training Development Team. She is a past diocesan president and state leadership member of the Council of Catholic Women. I was pleased to hear that Mary would be attending this conference and representing the Catholic Church of southern Missouri. To the women of our parish, if you have not been attending the meetings of the PCCW locally, please consider doing so. They are a stellar group of women dedicated to faith, fellowship and service. For more information please contact Joan Woods jwoods8888@yahoo.com or call the Parish Office, 326-5596. Special thanks to the ladies who attended this past weeks BUNCO activity at the monthly meeting. Fun was had by all. I enjoyed dropping in to say hello.

Just a reminder the disturbed gravel and concrete as well as the dug up area of the yard is due to the repair of the sewer line between the parish hall and the city main. Having completed the repairs the cosmetic restoration will soon follow. Happily, there should be no more "issues" or "issuing" from the bathrooms located in the Hall.

Through the Hearts of Jesus, Mary & Joseph,

Fr. Scott

THANK YOU: The family of Shawn Foster, would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their many, many prayers, the many Masses, all the beautiful cards, phone calls, and texts we received. We would also like to thank Carol Divin and the choir for the beautiful music, the wonderful dinner after the service and any other act of kindness you may have shown to us at this terrible time. I especially want to thank God for our wonderful priest, Father Scott. I have been told by Catholics and non-Catholics alike, that Shawn's funeral was one of the, if not the, most beautiful one they have ever attended, especially the BEAUTIFUL sermon Father Scott gave. I hope all of you realize what a wonderful blessing we have in him. He was and is my one stabling Grace through all of this. May God Bless all of you. We have such a wonderful and giving parish family. Thank you again, the Sokolik's and the Foster's (Jane & Marvin Sokolik, David & Debbie Foster & Children)

SHARE YOUR CHRISTMAS: Donations of 47 deodorants were received in the month of August along with 8 additional toothpastes. Thank you for helping to fill our SYC gift bags. Throughout September we will be collecting dishcloths and dishtowels. The Christmas box is located in the gathering space.
