HEART TO HEART.....by Rev. Scott M. Sunnenberg

Dear Parishioners,

Reverence for the Holy Eucharist, especially in our communal worship, is always of grave importance. We can never forget or fail to recognize the real presence of Jesus Christ, Body, Blood, Soul, & Divinity in the Sacrament of the Eucharist. There are many ways that we express this reverence, from genuflecting toward the Tabernacle as we enter and leave our pew (before and after Mass), a clear and audible AMEN in response to the priest speaking "The Body of Christ", considering our thoughtful and prayerful reception in the hand or upon the tongue at Communion, returning to our pews for a few moments of silent thanksgiving immediately following our reception of the Host. I'd like to address one point in particular about the sign of reverence just before our individual reception in the communion line. Our bishop has encouraged each communicant to bow before presenting to receive the Host. This is considered a communal act of reverence, much like saying AMEN. Some parishioners have recently expressed a personal desire to receive communion while kneeling. This expression of reverence is a personal choice. In sensitivity to this request and so as not to make kneeling on the floor difficult and disruptive to the flow of our communion line, a kneeler will be made available to the left of the priest (the left hand side of the altar). Those wishing to use it should proceed in the normal communion line, making their way immediately to the kneeler at the regular time. Those wishing not to use it should proceed as always. Let me clearly state that a reverent reception can be made either way.

Thank you to Mark Stanek for taking down our roadside nativity display and thank you to Kay and Jack Patrick for setting up the beautiful nativity set near the entry doors to the church.

BOLIVAR AREA SOUP KITCHEN (BASK) is asking for additional volunteers to help with drinks, kitchen, table service, clean up and welcoming for the Monday night weekly meal. Those interested may attend a short training on Monday, January 17th at 4:00 p.m. A number of our parishioners have already attended this training throughout the past year and a half and are assisting by representing our parish in this worthwhile ministry. Please help provide a hot meal and show love for the needy in our community. The meal and training are at First Christian Church.

The Rite of Blessing for Children in the Womb (Mothers with child) will be offered at 10:15 a.m. next Sunday (January 23rd) just before the 10:30 a.m. Mass. All mothers who are carrying a child at this time are invited to present themselves for this blessing. Additionally, any parishioners wishing to pray with these mothers are invited as well. January is the month that we commemorate the tragic number of lives lost since the Roe v Wade decision in our country. It's an excellent time to recognize the innocent child in the womb of their mother.

Due to increased numbers of COVID omicron variant in our community and parish we want to take this opportunity to remind everyone that masks are available in the entryway as well as a sanitizing station for hands. Please take a moment to use the sanitizing station. If you feel sick or are concerned about pre-existing conditions, please remain home and watch Mass via our Facebook page. Lastly, please remember that those sitting on the outer rows of pews, closest to the wall, should NOT crossover the center pews in route to the main aisle for Holy Communion. Please wait until all center pews have exited and then join the line from the back of the main aisle. This is to keep our seating areas as clean as possible and avoid any event of cross contamination.

Through the Hearts of Jesus and Mary,
Scott
