HEART TO HEART.....by Rev. Scott M. Sunnenberg

Dear Parishioners,

Due to increased numbers of COVID omicron variant in our community and in our parish we want to take this opportunity to remind everyone that masks are always available in the entryway as well as a sanitizing station for hands. Please take a moment on your way into church to use the sanitizing station. If you feel sick or are concerned about pre-existing conditions, please remain home and watch Mass via our Facebook page. Lastly, please remember that those sitting on the outer rows of pews, closest to the wall, should NOT crossover the center pews in route to the main aisle for Holy Communion. Please wait until all center pews have exited and then join the line from the back of the main aisle. The purpose behind this is to keep our seating areas as clean as possible and avoid any event of cross contamination. I personally have been feeling a little "off" this week and went to be tested out of abundance of caution. At the writing of this bulletin, I am awaiting results to determine plans for the weekend. As you read this, should you see me at Mass this weekend, you can rest assured that the results were negative.

Please pray for all of those in our parish and community currently affected by positive test results. I can confirm that there are folks in our parish family who are currently awaiting test results, as am I, or have received positive confirmations. Let us continue to be vigilant, proactive, and protective of each other.

Through the Hearts of Jesus and Mary,

Fr. Scott
