HEART TO HEART.....by V. Rev. Scott M. Sunnenberg

Dear Parishioners:

Thank you for the prayers as I served last weekend as a Spiritual Director for the women's Cursillo weekend in Carthage. I'm happy to say we had a participant in the weekend from our parish here at Sacred Heart! For those who have made Cursillo in the past, you know what a blessing it is. For those who have never made a Cursillo weekend, I would invite you to do so next Fall or Spring.

We are hoping to collect a list of names for those at Sacred Heart Parish who have made a Cursillo weekend in the past. Please call or email the office and let us know if you are one of these people known as Cursillistas. It's our hope that we may begin small grouping in the near future.

Our Parish Leadership Team (PLT) has identified that we prioritize prayer as the Body of Christ as one of our parish objectives. In order to do this we have created our own Sacred Heart Parish prayer that can be found on the front cover of our pew missals. We ask and invite all parishioners to join us as begin praying this prayer at the start of every Mass. If anyone would like a personal copy of the prayer, you may find small prayer cards in the vestibule.

A BIG Sacred Heart thank you to Kurt Swihart and his crew for their generous work on bringing to fruition the long discussed and awaited treatment of the old church exterior. Parish Council began this endeavor about two years ago as we discussed the noticeable difference and dated appearance between our two buildings (old church/now office and new church). The initial discussion began with the dated cream colored window tiles which are now a beautiful bronze that match the trim work of the new church and extended to the brick, which in its day stood alone; but with the new church stood out noticeably in contrast. Thank you to the Swihart Painting company for bringing needed complementarity and a consistency to our beautiful and amazing parish.

We welcome Dr. Mark Zia, of Benedictine College in Atchison, Kansas to Sacred Heart the weekend of May 19/20, 2023. Dr. Mark Zia is a professor of theology, husband, father, and owner of a Catholic book and gift shop that also sells REAL Italian gelato! We are delighted that Dr. Zia has accepted our invitation to be with us Friday night and again on Saturday morning (19th/20th) to share with us his study and presentation on the Shroud of Turin (burial cloth of Jesus) and the Body of Christ in this Eucharistic time of Revival. This presentation is a WONDERFUL follow-on to our Lenten presentation of Veronica's Veil and devotion of the Holy Face of Jesus. We hope to see you there. Friday night and Saturday morning will be the same presentation.

Alleluia, He is Risen!

Fr. Scott

DISCIPLESHIPS SPOTLIGHT MOMENTS:

Let's share the stories...Another member of the parish saw the previous prayer of last week and wanted to offer her prayer of Thanksgiving for loving friendships and being well received here in our parish community.

God our Father, thank you for this community, so ready to serve You and each other. Thank you for our dedicated and selfless leaders in each ministry. We ask your continued grace and blessing as we journey together. Amen.
