HEART TO HEART.....by V. Rev. Scott M. Sunnenberg

Dear Parishioners:

Congratulations go out to Micah Arendt on receiving the Sacrament of Baptism; as well as his parents, grandparents and Godparents.

Thank you to those who signed up for small groups for the Fall Small Groups to share faith in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament. Those who signed up will be receiving contacts from their small group facilitators very soon. Thank you also to our facilitators for their help.

Thank you to the Schick family and the Enderle's as well as those who DID sign up for the Fall work day on the parish property and Fr. Pat's residence. Unfortunately, there were not enough signed up to facilitate the work day. The before mentioned parishioners have graciously agreed to work with Brenda in order to accomplish some of the tasks originally planned. We only have one annual Fall work day and one Spring work day. Please sign up when you see these offered. All hands on deck make for light work.

Special thanks to Mary Wick and Ash Carrel for taking on our Annual All Saints celebration for our youth. I deeply regret not being able to be present as usual, but will be undergoing a heart procedure at that time. All are invited to join our youth for this event or to just watch costumed little saints on parade following the evening All Saints Day Mass on November 1st.

Please take a moment to notice our long awaited NEW MAIN ALTAR. We are very excited with the craftsmanship and final product. In the days ahead we will be working with the bishop's office to schedule a time for the consecration of the new altar to take place so we may begin using it at that time. Please feel free to look at and approach. Please be aware that nothing should be placed on the altar at any time.

Blessings,

Fr. Scott
