HEART TO HEART.....by V. Rev. Scott M. Sunnenberg

Dear Parishioners,

Congratulations to Gage & Allison (Butler) Foster who were married this Saturday. May they have many happy years together and may the Holy Spirit bless them in all they do.

When we pray the Our Father, we address God with a very special, very familiar, and very dear title, "Father". To know God as Father is to know the greatest Father of all. To know God looks at us as beloved sons and daughters is to know who we are in His loving gaze. As we celebrate Father's Day, we can see the goodness of our Father in heaven, reflected in the love and care of our earthly fathers, and our spiritual fathers, as well as those who have shown us fatherly care. Let us remember the gift of fatherhood, let us thank God for our earthly fathers, and those who show us the care of a father and let us remember to honor them with not just gifts but our hearts and prayers also.

In the coming weeks we will be posting a survey for all parishioners on behalf of the PLT (Parish Leadership Team) in order to help us better gauge the spiritual and catechetical strengths of our parish. We also hope to key in on areas where improvement can be addressed. Additionally, we hope to get a more clear picture of how the parish can support and enrich families in their living of our faith beyond the Sunday Mass and in all aspects of family life. The survey will be made available in the vestibule as well as on our website. When it launches, it is our hope that all families will engage and participate in this endeavor.

Save the date: Saturday, July 13...for a parish movie night with popcorn, a featured film for families and individuals following evening Mass.

Our prayers go out for the repose of the soul of Barbara Francka and the entire Francka family. Barbara passed away this week and her funeral arrangements are Sunday evening a visitation at Butler Funeral home from 4-6 p.m. with a rosary at 6:30 p.m. and a Funeral Mass on Monday here at Sacred Heart at 10:00 a.m. May Barbara and all the faithful departed rest in peace!

*Blessings to you all,
Fr. Scott*
