

Advent is Coming: Next Sunday, November 30th, we will begin a new liturgical year and the season of Advent. In our parish bulletin, we like to use this as a learning tool, as well as sharing pertinent information. During the weeks of Advent we will bring to you ideas about this season that hopefully you will use to make it holy and a blessed time of preparing and waiting as we reflect how our Lord came to us and how we look forward to His coming again. During these four weeks of Advent we will focus on the Hope, Faith, Joy, and Peace so that we may actually slow down enough to enjoy the weeks leading up to Christmas, rather than wish the season away.

DEANERY 3 VOCATION DAY: Mark your calendars now for April 18th, 2026, 10:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. This will be a Deanery 3 wide Vocation Day held at St. Francis de Sales Catholic Church, Lebanon. Fr. Scott is working with pastors to prepare and plan for this day with representatives from all of our parishes in the deanery. As a reminder, Deanery 3 includes El Dorado Springs, Stockton, Bolivar, Humansville, Buffalo, Marshfield, Conway, and Lebanon. This event will be a first of its kind for us bringing together the deanery as a whole. It will include great guest speakers, a keynote presentation, breakout sessions, prayer and activities for all ages, lunch and a 4:00 p.m. Sunday vigil Mass. Each of us has a vocation to serve God as a priest or religious, a married man or woman, or a dedicated single person. To know God's plans for our vocation we must learn to pray and discern asking His will and listening for His voice. Once we have discerned His will, then we must live it and do so with generosity and joyful hearts. Plan to attend and don't say we didn't tell you, as this is five months early notice. This is for everybody, those currently living their vocation, those discerning their vocation, and those who want to learn more about how to discern.

"Our Catholic parish family welcomes all to share in Christ and the call to everlasting life through faith, prayer and fellowship."

Solemnity of Christ the King:

On the last Sunday of each liturgical year (the Sunday before Advent begins), the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, or Christ the King.

Pope Pius XI instituted this feast in 1925 with his encyclical Quas primas ("In the first") to respond to growing secularism and atheism. He recognized that attempting to "thrust Jesus Christ and his holy law" out of public life would result in continuing discord among people and nations. This solemnity reminds us that while governments come and go, Christ reigns as King forever.

Christ's kingship is rooted in the Church's teaching on the Incarnation. Jesus is fully God and fully man. He is both the divine Lord and the man who suffered and died on the Cross. One person of the Trinity unites himself to human nature and reigns over all creation as the Incarnate Son of God. "From this it follows not only that Christ is to be adored by angels and men, but that to Him as man angels and men are subject, and must recognize His empire; by reason of the hypostatic union Christ has power over all creatures" (Quas primas, 13).

HEART TO HEART.....by V. Rev. Scott M. Sunnenberg

A LOOK AT LEO: “Our heavenly Father knows and loves each of us, and he forgets no one!” Nov. 2, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

Three weeks ago we took a stab at hunger in our local area by responding to the call to bring boxed cereal to church. I’m happy to report that we killed it by providing 53 boxes of cereal to COM Food Pantry! Two weeks ago I asked that we sport a can-do-attitude in combatting hunger in the SNAP deficits of late by bringing canned food items to church. We certainly can-did as we collected 215 pounds worth of food!! THIS past weekend we got in the ring and took a swing at hunger by collecting 249 pounds of boxed items. Over three weeks we collected 53 boxes of cereal and 464 pounds of non perishable food items. THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU for making a difference and helping to respond to the Gospel by feeding the hungry.

Next weekend at all Masses (First Sunday of Advent), the Magnificat Advent Companion booklets will be available. Please take one per family and any leftovers will be made available the following weekend. As always, these are an excellent resource to help us enter into prayerful contemplation as we await the historical birth of Jesus, make ready our hearts to receive Him now and look for the day that He will return again. Advent invites us all to do as John the Baptist did in preparing the way of the Lord and making space in our all too busy world for Jesus. Additional Advent resources you may wish to consider can be found at Clunymedia.com where some excellent classic books are being reprinted for today and made available. One in particular I would recommend is “The True Meaning of Christmas” by Venerable Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen. Another excellent online source is the daily video series “33 Day Dedication to our Eucharistic Jesus”, with the Dominican Fathers, which can be found at spiritualdirection.com Relevant Radio is offering a FREE daily pray, listen, and reflect Advent Calendar delivered to your email with everything except chocolate. Sign up at relevantradio.com Catholic Extension Society has prepared a free downloadable Advent companion which includes thoughtful reflections for each Sunday, as well as prayer reminders and helps so that we can reconnect with what Advent truly means. Sign up at give.catholicextension.org And for the especially adventurist try checking out the Nativity Escape Room where participants can hone their problem solving skills while discovering more about the birth of Jesus. This is a “print and go” activity with materials for ages 8-15. This item is currently available at a discount price of $7.99 for a limited time. Check it out at teachsundayschool.com Last but by NO means least are the FANTASTIC resources available on FORMED with our FREE parish subscription made available to all parish members. There are more than fifty items to watch, listen and learn from activities to movies, documentaries to cartoons, as well as lessons for all ages. If you have not previously signed up, take a moment to do so now at formed.org under the Sacred Heart Bolivar tab and begin benefiting and receiving blessings immediately.

On December 16, from 5-7 p.m., our parish will serve a Christmas dinner to those participating in the Community Christmas events through COM. This is the continuation, as many may already know, of the good work began over forty years ago with Share Your Christmas, now, and newly under the direction of COM our community is coming together once again to share the meaning Christmas and message of Christ. We are joining with the parishioners of St. Alban’s Episcopal Church to prepare and serve the dinner in our McKenna Hall. I would like to invite all parishioners, young and young at heart to help by serving the dinner, welcoming the participants, bussing tables, and setup/cleanup. The kitchen team consisting of our ladies and others from St. Alban will be preparing a wonderful meal to fill the bellies—help us to provide a warm environment to fill the souls.

With the past several years of the amazing generosity of our parishioners to Giving Tuesday, we are going to take this year off from formal participation in the Giving Tuesday fundraiser. This is a time that many may want to consider other ways to give beyond the annual financial gift to Giving Tuesday. Perhaps you will go through a closet finding the good stuff that can be given away; maybe you will sign up to help with our Community Christmas dinner as mentioned above; maybe you will visit a nursing home with your family to brighten someone’s day, or drop off something fresh baked to a senior living alone. Maybe you will call the Parish Office and see if there are any volunteer projects that can use some hands to help; maybe you will give a gift to a Christmas toy fund drive or to place under a giving tree. Whatever you do, give from the heart and it will be enough. Thank you to all who have made our Giving Tuesday’s such a beautiful success and testament these past years. Giving Tuesday is December 2, 2025.

Through the Hearts of Jesus and Mary,
Fr. Scott
